12B MESSAGE

CLASSMATES:

In a short time we will be 12A's. With that will come added responsibilities. In the past, perhaps, our cares have rested lightly, but as we approach this final term, we must, with seriousness, assume these duties.

Let us strive together to make the class of January, 1933, the very best.

11A MESSAGE

WE have, as an 11A class, been slow in showing the spirit of our predecessors, but now that we are to take over a bigger task, let us do so with the cooperation and willingness of all.

So let us take this last step with more spirit than we have shown in the past year.

CLASSMATES:

"Junior" is a glorious name, but "Senior," which is a step closer to us, is a more glorious one. The mingling of our joys and sorrows has made the past year a most successful one, and we have enjoyed working together.

As we see our superior class cooperating, let us strive to go just a little farther and set a good example for the coming Juniors.

10A MESSAGE

IT is not without a feeling of regret that we realize we are at the end of our Sophomore year. During this year we have had many experiences, some happy, some otherwise, which will long be cherished by us.

However, we are proud when we remember that we are to be Juniors. As Juniors, we will have the responsibility of living up to the high ideals furnished by the former classes.

We realize the necessity of work and the cooperation of all, and in our turn, are ready to do our best to uphold a standard that will serve as an inspiration for those to come.

WILLIAM MANN,
President.

10B MESSAGE

WE have finished our first term as Sophomores in this High School. As we look back we may recall many eventful days and also many mistakes. So let us, in the time left as Sophomores, correct these mistakes. Then our class will be a responsible unit of this institution, able to serve the classes before, and the ones to follow.

ATHLETICS

LED by Captain John Lloyd the Fowlerites came through a grueling season with a respectable record of five games won and five lost. In almost every game our team was greatly outweighed but made that up with plenty of fight.

Eighty men reported for practice at the first of the season. Five lettermen were back and there was also an abundance of good material from the Junior Highs and last year's reserves. The first team had a tough reserve team with which to get plenty of practice. Out of a schedule of seven games this tough team took five.

On Wednesday, December twenty-third, letters were awarded to seventeen men; and Tom Woodward was announced captain of next season's eleven. Gus Hill was chosen on two all-state selections as a reward for his fine work. The team was well and efficiently coached this year by Brick Fowler and Willard Blackney.

Port Huron, 13—Algonac, 0

On a muddy field and an equally muggy day the Fowlerites tripped up the Boat Builders with two touchdowns. A line smash by Kleinstiver and an end run by Hill accounted for the points. It was a good start for a hard season.

Port Huron, 18—Birmingham, 6

Uncorking a breathtaking aerial offense, Birmingham made a touchdown early in the game. Displaying plenty of red, the Red-Whites made a fighting comeback with Hazlette making one and Hill making two touchdowns. This was our first S. E. A. A. tilt.

THE STUDENT

Port Huron, 7—Pontiac, 12

The little brown jug's rest was undisturbed due to its successful defense by a towering tribe of lucky chieftains. An untimely fumble changed victory to defeat and put Matthews in the limelight as Port Huron's jinx when he caught a pass for the winning tally.

Port Huron, 9—Ferndale, 7

Out of a Port Huron fumble a Ferndale tackle made a Ferndale touch-down in the first quarter. Captain Lloyd, blocking a punt, made two points with a safety. Bennet taking a pass added six more while Hill kicked goal for the ninth point.

Port Huron, 0—Mount Clemens, 21

A fast, hard driving, fighting Mount Clemens outfit stormed Port Huron's game defense for three touch-downs. Keeping Hill well covered and covering the path of their own leather luggers, the Olsenmen captured the "Little Brown Keg." Two block punts and a pass each accounted for seven points.

Port Huron, 0—Toledo Libbey, 34

Fighting and contesting every inch she lost, Port Huron was overwhelmed only after Libbey's greater reserve strength wore our club to the marrow. It was a victory for the Red-Whites in that Snyder didn't run back any punts.

Port Huron, 34—Royal Oak, 6

Showing a complete reserve of form, the Red-Whites overwhelmed Royal Oak in every department of play.

Port Huron, 0—U. of D. High, 6

A very fortunate U. of D. team got off with six points early in the game. From then on she stayed in her own territory. Fumbles were the rule and not the exception in this frey.

Port Huron, 0—Bay City, 7

Fighting gamely, as usual, and definitely outweighed, as usual, Port Huron held the Wolves to one touchdown in the cleanest game played here during the season with only one penalty marring the tilt.

Port Huron, 7—Richmond, 0

A long pass and a line buck by Smith put the ball over for a touchdown in the last half. The Red-Whites did not punt throughout the entire contest. The game was a nice finish to a hard season.

THE STUDENT

1931-32 BASKETBALL

BRICK FOWLER again turned out one of his usual basketball teams. Four lettermen and a number of fine basketeers turned out at the first of the season, and co-captains Hill and Emerick were backed up by a great team that turned in a fine record. At mid-year the team was hit quite hard by graduation, losing Hill and Stevens. However, there were some great players to take their place, and the Junior Highs furnished good material for future development. Tom Parent was the efficient manager.

This year we had a reserve outfit that gave the varsity plenty of practice. Coach Blackney's gang turned in an excellent record and filled up more than one hole in the main lineup. There is a bunch of good players in that gang that will step lively next year.

At the end of the season the players were entertained at a very successful basketball banquet. Coach Jimmy Crowley of Michigan State was the main speaker. Emerick and Dan Smith were chosen as next year's co-captains and the following boys received letters: Gus Hill, co-captain this season and eleven lettermen; "Shep" Emerick, co-captain this year and next, high point man; George Stevens, great help in keeping the team steady; Dan Smith, a fighter throughout every game, next year's co-captain; Jim Crawford, good all-round player, will be here until next February; Alf Given, a human grasshopper; Bill Johnson, a good guard or forward; Bill DeBord, a great player, has two more years; Norman Ling, watch him next year; Elwyn Millet, same here; Tom Parent, manager.

THE STUDENT

This is the bunch that turned in the highest percentage of any team P. H. H. S. has ever had. Here's what their coach thinks of them: "In my six years of coaching experience I never had a finer group of boys to work with than the 1931-32 boys. They worked hard all through the season, willing to give all they had for the good of the team. Near the end of the season an epidemic of influenza hit the squad, which handicapped their play in the last three games.

"The boys turned in the highest percentage of games won of any team in the history of the school, winning 13 of the 16 games played. May they carry through life the kind of sportsmanship, clean living, and fair play that they showed during the past season."

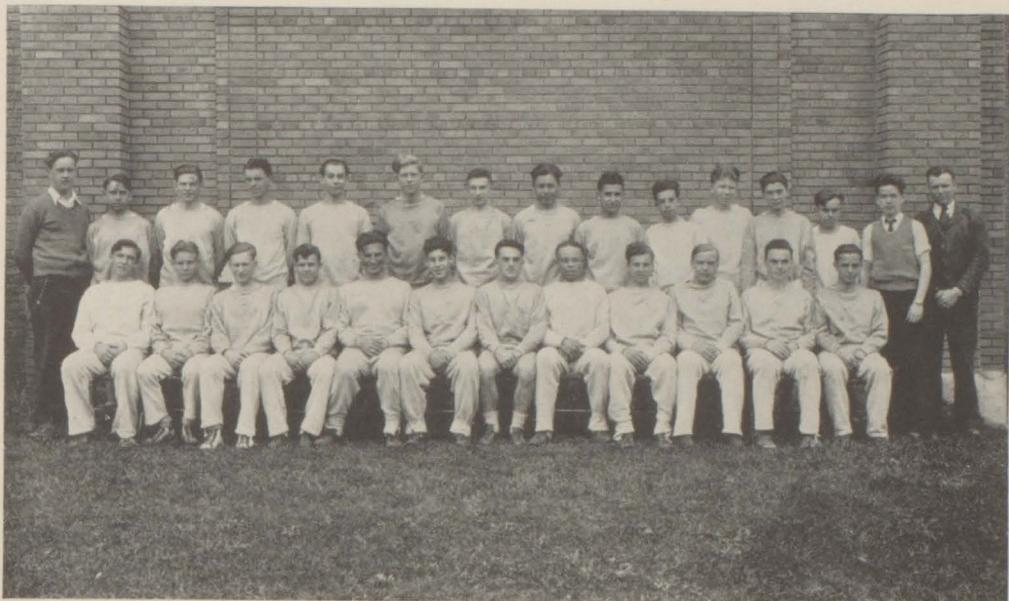

Their record speaks for itself:

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

THE intramural basketball league was a great success this year. Much interest was shown by the classes participating, and some very close games were played. Mr. Paulson, of Washington Junior High, was in charge of the league, and to his efficient management and great interest is due much of the credit for the league's success. Former basketball lettermen refereed the games which were played in the Roosevelt Junior High gymnasium.

The 10A team won the championship for the first semester, and the 12B's took the crown for the second semester. At the end of the season Mr. Paulson picked these boys as an all-star team to play the High School reserves: Gail Gaffield and Hayward Welch, forwards; Walker Archer, center; Elmer Jack and Ralph Donaghy, guards; and Ralph Young, Gordon Carson, and "Red" MacJennette, subs. The reserves won by a 14-10 score.

TRACK

COACH BRICK FOWLER starts second year as track coach in P. H. H. S. with a fairly well experienced team. The six lettermen who are out again this year are: Captain Norman Ling, Lloyd Kleinstiver, Oscar Hazlette, Ernest Nagle, Stewart McCabe, and James Mericka. Aside from these some good material from last year's squad and from the Junior Highs will help make Port Huron a more formidable track and field opponent this season.

The following boys are the most promising in their event: Kleinstiver, Durrant, Hazlette, and Ling in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes; Kleinstiver and Deener, low hurdles; Reed, high hurdles; Kleinstiver, Hazlette, Durrant, and Campbell, relay team; Campbell, Greenberg, and Geoffroy, 440 yard dash; Linteau, Bond, and Bradley, 880 yard run; Mericka, Vos, Huber, and Bassett, mile run; Geoffroy and Hazley, pole vault; Hazlette, DeBord, Hazley, Flowers, and Reed, high jump; Hazlette, Kleinstiver, and Campbell, running broad jump; McCabe, Hazlette, and Ling, shot put; Ling, Nagle, Deener, and Kleinstiver, discus throw; and Ling, Furman, McCabe, and Nagle, javelin throw. Hayward Welch is the manager, and he is assisted by Jack MacDonald.

The thin clads will compete in the following meets:

April 23, Algonac, here; April 30, Fordson, Grosse Pointe, Ferndale, Wyandotte, Port Huron, at Fordson; May 4, Marine City, here; May 13, Pontiac, Mt. Clemens, Port Huron, at Mt. Clemens; May 18, St. Clair, here; May 21, S. E. League Regional, Fordson; May 25, Richmond, here (tentative); May 27, State Meet, Lansing; June 3, Sandusky, here (tentative).

BASEBALL

COACH WILLARD BLACKNEY has a fine squad back of him for his first year as head baseball coach here. Four lettermen along with boys from last year's squad and some who came from the Junior Highs this year turned out for practice. From these the following lineup has developed: O'Neil at first; Thom at second with Malcolm Crawford subbing; Moran at short stop; Patterson at third with Sari close behind; Smith and Lambert, catchers; Buntrock, Hazley, and Myron, pitchers; May at left field; Willis at center field, and Isabell at right field. Cecil Hunter is this year's manager with Charles Taylor and Grant Arnold as his assistants.

Port Huron has always been a formidable baseball opponent, and this year is no exception. Our team will give their opponents a hard run. The schedule follows:

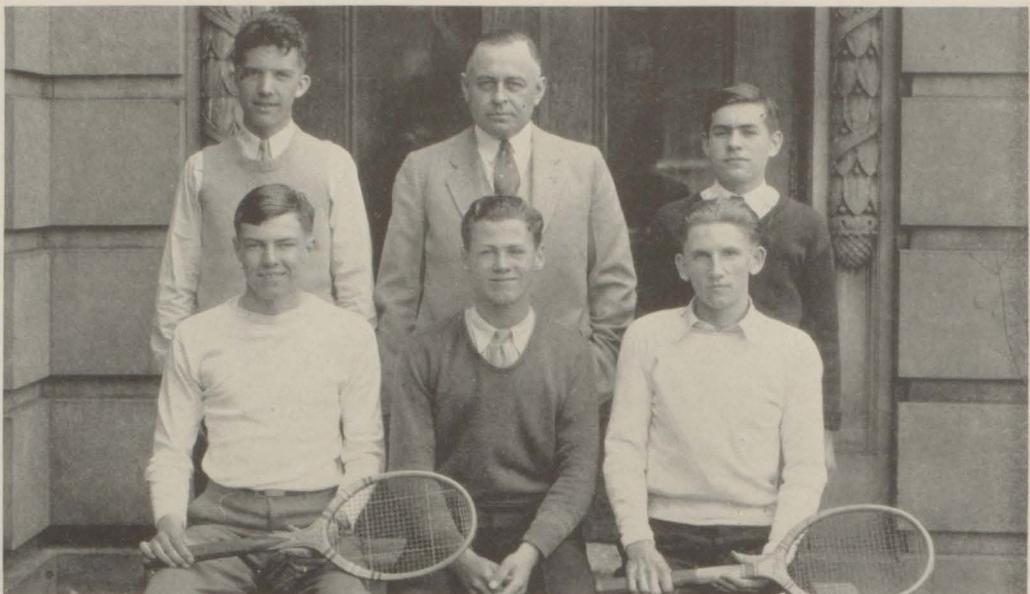

April 22	—Algonac	-	-	-	-	-	There
April 23	—St. Stephen's	-	-	-	-	-	There
May 3	—Richmond	-	-	-	-	-	There

May 30	—Fordson	-	-	-	-	-	Here
June 3	—Richmond	-	-	-	-	-	Here
June 4	—Adrian	-	-	-	-	-	There

GOLF

MR. DENTAL is the coach of the High School golfers for this season. He has a fine team composed of James Crawford, Van Buskirk, and the two lettermen, Keyser and Raetzel. Soini, Wright, Capps, Gaffield and Thompson are hot on these boys' heels for a place on the team. Mr. Dentel has high hopes of a successful season. Here is the schedule:

April 29	—Mt. Clemens	-	-	-	-	Here
May 4	—Pontiac	-	-	-	-	There
May 10	—St. Clair	-	-	-	-	Here

May 28	—S. E. League meet	-	-	-	-	Mt. Clemens
May 31	—St. Clair	-	-	-	-	There

TENNIS

THIS year Coach A. L. Mills has a tennis team that is more than a mere threat to other South Eastern League teams. The team was chosen after an elimination contest among those who turned out. It is composed of four lettermen along with other players of high caliber. Brown, Woodward, and Henry handle the singles; and Garlick and Parent, Woodward and Brown make up the two doubles teams; Glover is the extra man.

The schedule is a stiff one:

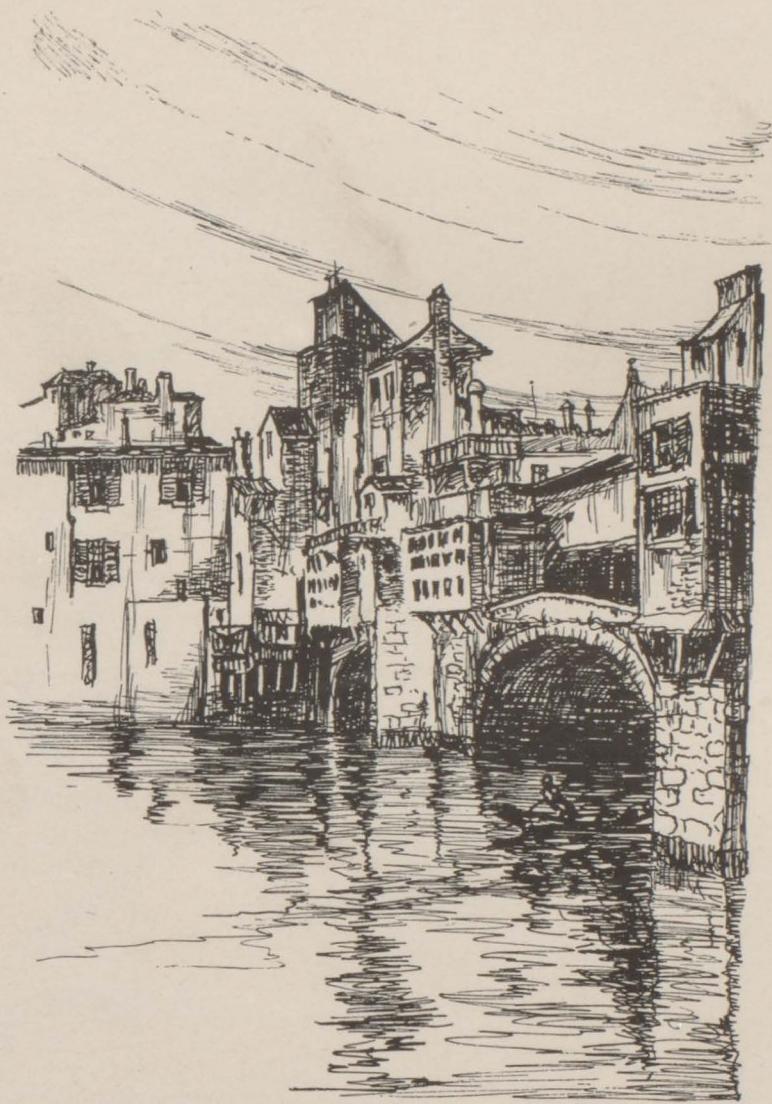

April 20—Mt. Clemens	-	-	-	There
April 22—Grosse Pointe	-	-	-	There
May 3—St. Clair	-	-	-	There
May 10—Mt. Clemens	-	-	-	Here

THIS year the Lighthouse was run under the same system as the previous year. Bob Bassett and Gregg Lewis were in charge the first semester. Albert Carlisle took up the Editorship at the beginning of the second semester, but on account of illness, gave way to Norman Barnes and Herbert MacDonough. Maurice Robinson and Marvin Bergsman have handled the business end in a satisfactory way.

The staff was under the direction of the faculty advisor, Miss MacLaren, who has proved a big help to the paper.

Several of the staff attended a journalism convention in Highland Park, March 12. Round Table discussions and open meetings were held for the benefit of the young journalists.

The organization held a Press Banquet at the close of the year.

The editors wish to extend their thanks to the staff members for their excellent work this year.

THE STUDENT

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE Student Council is a group taken from each class, to represent the student body. Three are elected from each A and B class each semester, and the Council itself elects its own officers.

The Student Council had charge of the Basketball banquet given this spring, which was a very successful affair, due to the efforts of Alan Brown, President, Harland Reed, Elizabeth Rauser, and Frieda Emerick.

Those elected to the Student Council this semester were:

12A

Cornelia McGaw
Herbert MacDonough
Catharine Baker

10A

Ralph Vos
William DeBord
Bertram North

11B

Elizabeth Rauser
Frieda Emerick
Molly Langolf

11A

Frieda Roehl
Betty Huntley
Stewart McCabe

12B

Alan Brown
Harland Reed
Kate Davie

10B

Evelyn Hoskins
Elaine Van Norman
David McCullough

BAND

THE band this year consists of thirty-two members. It has been very active, having played at all the home football games and many of the civic events, including the Corner-stone ceremony of the new Port Huron Hospital, Armistice Day Parade, Spring Opening, Dedication of Seventh Street Bridge, and Loyalty Day Parade.

Much of the band's success is due to the leadership of Mr. Hess.

ORCHESTRA

THE orchestra was organized during the second semester, and has a membership of twenty. On April 27, the orchestra went to Marine City to co-operate with other orchestras from different cities in St. Clair County.

This organization is rapidly increasing in membership and Mr. Hess, the director, hopes to bring it up to forty by next year.

• TRIO

THE Girls Double Trio consisting of Winifred Short and Muriel Tallant, first sopranos; Lucille Richards and Helen Taylor, second sopranos; and Florence Mae Fair and Margaret Moore, altos, has had an active year. Many appearances at church and school affairs have made a full schedule. They were part of the Chorale Chorus which made the trip to Ypsilanti. Four of the girls are seniors, and these formed a Cap and Gown Quartette which sang at Commencement.

THE STUDENT

CHORUS

BESIDES the Vocal class which meets every day, a chorus of 250 voices meets once a week. This class counts as an activity credit and gives everyone an opportunity to sing. Those who wish to join the Glee Club may do so by singing in the chorus for one year. All kinds of music are used in the Chorus from rounds and school pep songs to the beautiful and difficult Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's famous oratorio "The Messiah." The Chorus appeared in an interesting program at Christmas, and also made up half of the county group which sang at the Armory in March. The Chorus was invited to participate in the Choral Day festival, May 1, which was sponsored by the Port Huron Musicale.

DRAMATICS CLUB

THE officers of the Dramatics Club were as follows:

President - - - - -	Herbert MacDonough
Secretary - - - - -	Mary Slutsky

The three one-act plays given by the club were very successful. A new plan of student directors for each play was carried out. "Little Liberty" was directed by Enid Paige; "Mrs. Pat and the Law," by Wenola Church; and "Station Y-Y-Y-Y," by Wesley Purkiss.

At club meetings a mock wedding, a Cuckoo Hour, and a District School furnished programs of interest. During the first semester talks were given by members on the history of the theatre make-up, and setting.

A club dance was given in the high school auditorium on April 22. A skit, the Cuckoo Hour, was put on during the intermission, Bertram North and Sidney Sinclair taking part in it.

FORUM CLUB

UNDER the guidance of President John McWilliams, the Forum Club sponsored the Debate squad who went through a season with a number of wins and losses. The club held a weiner roast at Mr. Lewis' farm early in the fall at which about 40 people attended. During this semester many speeches on world problems were given at the regular Tuesday noon meetings by members of the club. The officers for the first term were: John McWilliams, President; Herbert MacDonough, Vice-President; and Gladys Clark, Secretary.

Starting the second semester, Herbert MacDonough was elected to the Presidency with Willard King, Vice-President; and Gladys Clark again Secretary. In this term the club sponsored the Annual Spring Declamatory Contest. Members of the Sophomore Class of the High School and Freshman Class from Garfield competed. Herbert MacDonough presided at the function and presented the winner, John Frost, of the Garfield, with the Bronze Award.

Also during this semester the club presented the members of the debate teams with gold pin awards consisting of a scales to represent the Forensic part, and a guard chain with a gavel to show Parliamentary Law. The club, which is the most active in the High School, has a membership of 20 persons. Mr. Clayton Lewis is the adviser.

THE STUDENT

FRENCH CLUB

AT the first meeting of the French Club on Tuesday, March 23, the following officers were elected: President, Frances Davidson; Vice-President, Catherine Baker; Secretary, Kate Davie; Reporter for Lighthouse, Elizabeth Baker.

The meetings were held every other week on Tuesday. At each meeting a chairman was appointed for the next meeting's program. The chairman selected a committee and prepared the program for the following meeting.

The most unique program given this year was a short French play in which Kate Davie, Catherine Baker, and Elizabeth Baker took part.

Miss Everham and Miss Case have given faithful support and the members thank them profoundly.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

THE German Club has spent a very active and profitable year, the forty-seven members meeting every Tuesday in room 211. The usual program consisted of the business, parliamentary drill, and educational games and speeches—all in the foreign language. Special programs featured a German play in seven scenes, "Einer Musz Heiraten," with the following cast: Bruno Apple, Henry Marcus, Wilma Schomacker, and Lillian Scher. There was an interesting talk in German by Philip Browning on his European trip. The reading of the club paper "Der Schulbeobachter" also furnished several programs.

Social features consisted of a Christmas party, given by Miss Ruth Leithouser at her home, a Valentine party, a theatre party to the German movie in Detroit, and the annual picnic at Lakeport.

Officers were elected for one semester only.

First Semester:

Lillian Scher	- - - - -	President
John Zimmer	- - - - -	Vice-President
Eleanor Misch	- - - - -	Secretary

Second Semester:

Wilma Schomacker	- - - - -	President
Lillian Scher	- - - - -	Vice-President
Eleanor Misch	- - - - -	Secretary
Bruno Apple	- - - - -	Program Chairman
Anita Schmude, Dorothy Kopalnick	- - - - -	Business Chairmen

William Schomacker was editor of the German paper for the first semester. Bruno Apple was awarded the prize for the most contributions for the first semester and was appointed to edit the paper for the second semester. Miss Alice Rothman is faculty adviser of the club.

THE STUDENT

SPANISH CLUB

THE Spanish Club, meeting with Mr. Guerra, the faculty advisor, every other Thursday, had a very active year. A new constitution was drawn up, limiting the membership to students having A or B grades in Spanish III or IV. At the end of the year the total membership was thirty-four.

The club presented the play, "Ghost of Herman Cortez," on January 15, and two parties, one at Hallowe'en and the other in February, were held.

The officers of the club for the first semester were Gusta Drescher, President; Mary Drago, Vice-President; James Garlick, Secretary-Treasurer. Those for the second semester were: Cecil Hunter, President; Evon Robison, Vice-President; Curtiss Bassett, Secretary-Treasurer.

GLEE CLUB

IN September, 1931, the Glee Club was placed on the credit list of high school subjects. A class of 65 was organized which met every day. Monday, the boys met under the direction of Miss Fraser, the girls with Miss Hyde, for separate work; Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the combined group studied chorus work; Friday was devoted to history and theory.

The class made its debut in November when it furnished music for the St. Clair County Institute which was held at the Majestic Theatre. In December, a Christmas concert was held in the Congregational Church, with special numbers by the Glee Club. In January, the Glee Club illustrated a talk given by Mrs. Ross MacLaren at a meeting of the Port Huron Musicale by singing a group of songs written by modern composers.

March was outstanding for two events. On March 16, the Glee Club put on a special number as well as singing in the chorus of 500 at the Armory in a County concert directed by Miss Ada Becking, state director of music. The climax of the year was the trip to Ypsilanti, where thirty picked voices had the rare privilege of singing the chorals in the St. Mathew Passion by Bach, under the direction of Mr. Frederick Alexander, of the M. S. N. C. Conservatory. The final appearance of the year will be in connection with graduation.

The officers of the Glee Club were as follows: First semester, President, Dean Ensign; Secretary, Douglas Hitchings; Treasurer, Robert Fitzgibbon; Librarian, Charles Sloat. Second semester, President, Willard King; Treasurer, Frieda Roehl, with the other officers remaining the same.

EMBROIDERY CLUB

THE Embroidery Club held its first regular meeting September 28. Officers were elected as follows: Florence Mae Fair, President; Margaret Bowen, Vice-President; Beatrice Willis, Secretary-Treasurer. Thirty members enrolled in the club.

During the semester, interesting talks were given by Mary Dudd, Lavina Gustke, Mildred Bingham, Beatrice Avery, Lorraine Hetzel, and Mary Cowan.

The visit to the Detroit Art Museum was greatly enjoyed by the members of the club.

MINIATURE AUTHORS' CLUB

DURING the past year the Miniature Authors have taken an active interest in furthering their aim; that is, to produce some worth-while creative writing and offer to anyone interested an opportunity to develop his ability to compose.

A number of new members have joined the club and during the past semester a variety of material has been submitted. Essays, poems, short stories, and humorous selections have appeared in the Lighthouse, besides several plays and a novel which have been discussed at the club meetings.

The following officers were chosen last September and have served throughout the year: President, Ella McIntyre; Vice-President, Jack Davis; Secretary-Treasurer, Karl Gooderham. Miss Ballentine has had charge of the club activities.

SENIOR PLAY

THIS year "Minick" was the play chosen for the Senior Class, which was presented April 15, at the Majestic Theatre.

The play centered around "Old Man Minick," played by Curtiss Bassett, who went to live with his son and daughter-in-law, whose parts were taken by Cecil Hunter and Pauline Limberg. Many complications arise from his entirely different modes of living, and he finally decides to live with his friends in an old Men's home.

In another character part, Dorothy Bridges acted very well. The rest of the cast were June Fraser, Norden Henderson, Lela May, Ford Marshall, Herbert MacDonough, Marvin Bergsman, Ida Hodgson, Cornelia McGaw, Barbara Knill, and Adelaine Callery.

Jack Isabell and Carlisle Johnson were business managers; Betty Lassen and Alex MacKenzie were in charge of costumes; Virginia Hopps, Muriel Tallant, and Winifred Short, makeup; Woodrow Ross, Harry Balmer, and James Mericka, properties.

Miss Leone Hill directed the play.

SOCIETYSpanish Club Hallowe'en Party

On Friday, October 30, the Spanish Club held a Hallowe'en masquerade party in the school auditorium, which was gaily decorated in orange and black for the occasion.

Entertainment was provided by Robert Fitzgibbon, who sang several songs, and by members of the club, who gave a short play. After the play there was dancing. Later in the evening, refreshments were served.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Guerra and Miss Merodine Case.

THE STUDENT

12B Class Assembly

The 12B class was host to the entire school at an assembly dance in the High School auditorium on December 4. About two hundred students enjoyed dancing from 3:30 until 5:30.

Alex "Doc" McKenzie and his orchestra furnished the music.

January Hop

The January Hop was held in the Arabian Ballroom on Friday, January 29. The ballroom was beautifully decorated in the class colors, yellow and green.

Norman Whiting's orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. MacLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Springer, Miss Marian Rowe, Miss Isabel MacLaren, and Miss Franklin.

Honor Society Initiation

On Wednesday, January 19, the newly elected honor students were initiated into the Honor Society. This year members chosen from both the January and June graduating classes were initiated at the same time in order to create an active Honor group in the High School.

The formal ceremony was performed in the High School auditorium by Mr. MacLaren and several of the 1931 honor students.

The new members chosen from the January class are Robert Bassett, H. Gregg Lewis, Edith Lewis, Philo Scott, and Alfred Maxwell. Those from the June class are Curtiss Bassett, Adelaine Callery, Frances Davidson, James Garlick, Pauline Limberg, Herbert MacDonough, Cornelia McGaw, James Mericka, Wesley Purkiss, and Wilma Schumacker.

Basketball Banquet

The annual basketball banquet was held Wednesday, March 23, at the First Congregational Church.

Mr. Clifford O'Sullivan, Port Huron attorney, was toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. James Crowley, football coach of Michigan State College, who was one of the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame. Other speakers were Laurie O. Telfer, "Brick" Fowler, and Mr. Myers.

Mr. Myers presented letters to basketball men from Washington and Garfield Junior Highs, Technical, St. Stephen's High School, and Port Huron High School, also to four yell leaders.

The High School Band, under the leadership of Alan Walker, played several selections, and a Glee Club Boys' Group sang three numbers directed by Miss Hyde.

The Student Council planned the affair, with Harland Reed acting in the capacity of chairman.

THE STUDENT

11B Class Dance

The 11B class held a dance in the school auditorium, Friday, April 8.

Music was furnished by a local orchestra.

Before the dance, several members of the class had a dinner in the cafeteria.

Dramatics Club Party

The Dramatics Club held a dance in the school auditorium Friday, April 22. Miss Leona M. Hill and Miss Helen P. Kefgen were chaperones.

A local orchestra played for dancing. During a short intermission, a comedy sketch was presented by members of the club.

Annual Mothers' and Daughters' Reception

The annual reception for Senior girls of Junior College and the High School was held in Junior College auditorium, May 12.

The American Association of University Women sponsored this affair. Miss Eunice Eichhorn was general chairman.

Miss Gertrude Muxen, Counselor on Occupational Information at University of Michigan, was the guest speaker.

June Hop

The June Hop will be held at the W. B. A. Camp, June 24. The dance floor will be decorated in red, white, and blue. The chairman of the decorating committee is Woodrow Ross.

The orchestra has not been chosen yet, but it will probably be from Detroit.

12A Class Party

The 12A class party was held in the Washington gymnasium, Friday, May 13. The gym was gaily decorated in the class colors, red, white and blue. There was a false ceiling of colored streamers in the center of which was a sign bearing the legend 12A. A local orchestra played for dancing.

The chaperones were Miss Case, Miss Eichhorn, and Mr. and Mrs. Bassett.

Press Banquet

The Press Banquet was held in the High School cafeteria in the last week in May. Members of both the Lighthouse and Student staffs were present. Speeches were made and the Editors-in-chief of the Lighthouse and Student were appointed.

The 1932 Students were given out and some time was spent in autographing them.

HUMOR

THE STUDENT

Mr. Mills: "Buster, tell me all you know about nitrates."

"Buster" Kahmann (arriving out of doze) : "Oh, well, they're all cheaper than day rates, sir."

Virginia Belyea: "You know, I'm considered one of the best dancers in the country."

Gus Hill: "Well, you're in the city, now."

Alan Brown: "Every time I kiss you, it makes me a better man."

Marian Farr: "Well, you don't have to try to get to heaven in one evening."

Mrs. Hyde: "What do you sing, young man, tenor?"

Norman Barnes: "No, shortstop."

Mrs. Hyde: "Shortstop?"

N. B.: "Yes, between second and third base."

Barbara Knill: "He thinks I'm the nicest girl in town. Shall I ask him to call?"

Mrs. Knill: "No, dear, let him keep on thinking so."

Lawerence Steiner (in one of his dominating moods) : "I'm going to kiss you every time you stop talking."

Jeanette Purvis: "Why you impudent thing! I'll never speak to you again."

"It's the little things in life that tell," said Jean as she yanked Dexter out from under the davenport."

Gregg Lewis: "What do you mean by telling Nelda I'm a fool?"

Edith Lewis: "I'm sorry, I didn't know it was a secret."

Cooper Johnson: "When I was young the doctors told me that if I didn't stop smoking I would become feeble-minded."

Jo Burley: "Well, why didn't you stop?"

Hugh Draper: "Boo, hoo. My pen what was guaranteed to last a lifetime is broken."

Mr. MacLaren: "What of it?"

Hugh Draper: "Now I got to die."

Carlisle Johnson: "I think a street car has just passed."

Bob Baker: "How do you know?"

Carlisle Johnson: "I can see its tracks."

THE STUDENT

Eleanor Taylor: "I wonder where all the boys who can dance are?"
Hank Schneider: "Dancing with all the girls who can dance."

Miss Woodward: "Two burglars enter, the clock strikes one."
Norden Henderson: "Which one?"

Eleanor Taylor: "What would you do if you had water on the knee?"
Adelaine Callery: "Wear pumps, of course."

Two intoxicated students were riding down a mountain road.
One Student: "Look out there how you're driving, or you'll send us over the bank."
Other Student: "Huh! me? why I thought you were driving."

EXTRACT FROM FOOTBALL RULES OF 1950 A. D.

Tackling shall conform to the following rules and ritual:

The offending player shall recite:

"Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
If you don't stop running
I'll tackle you."

Whereupon the defending player shall answer:

"Old lace and lavender—
Rouge and new shoes,
If you are going to be horrid,
I hope you lose."

Thereupon the ball shall be declared dead and the offending players shall act as pallbearers.

Norman Barnes: "Would you like to dance this one?"
Marion Farr: "Yes. Would you mind asking someone for me?"

Mr. Springer: "What are your habits at night?"
Maurice Robinson: "Pajamas."

He: "Didn't I see you taking a tramp through the woods yesterday?"
She: "The idea! That was my father."

Gregg Lewis and Nelda: "I love you more than anything else in the world."

Five years later: "What? You want another dollar. Where is that dime
I gave you last week?"

June Fraser: "We have a whole bookcase full of Bacon."
Betty Lassen: "We keep ours in the ice box."
